

Villa Sant Angiola

The most romantic and suggestive of the estate's villas. In a fantastic spot, surrounded by woods and olive groves, ideal for those searching for maximum peace and quiet.

Six bedrooms on the upper floor, each with its own bathroom and decorated with typically Tuscan period furniture. On the ground floor there is one bedroom with its own bathroom.

Ideal for a large family or for a group of friends who, in complete privacy, can relax by the private swimming pool or cook in the traditional Tuscan wood-burning oven or on the barbeque and, according to one's wishes, lunch or dinner below the large veranda.

A bathroom for handicapped persons is located on the ground floor.
