

Villa Marilla - Montelopio di Peccioli (PI) – for 8 + 2 people

Podere Marilla is located very peaceful and partly surrounded by beautiful cypresses, forest trees and flowers, location about 3 km far from the small village of Montelopio close to Peccioli.

Also Lajatico is closed by, which is the town, where the famous singer Andrea Bocelli was born and still becoming an international star for his incredibly moving voice.

In the same area you also find Teatro del Silenzio an open air Amphitheatre, which hosts a concert by Andrea Bocelli, its honorary president, once every year during June - August. The Theatre is remaining silent the rest of the year.

The Villa - first floor:

Large comfortable and well equipped living room with sofas etc., dining room with kitchen facilities and a fire place, 2 bedrooms (double), 2 bedrooms (double+1 single bed), 3 bathrooms.

The Villa - ground floor:

A living room to stay during the day at the pool side. Here you can make your barbecue dinner, sit and eat all together or just relax, while the children are playing close to.

The pool is located in a panoramic position in the middle of the garden. 50 m from the house there is a lake, where you can have birdwatching and walking inside the nature.

From the Villa you can easily reach the famous medieval towns like Volterra (20 minutes), San Gimignano (30 minutes) and Siena (60 minutes).

As an extra service during your Holiday, the owner organizes a dinner once a week with local products outside under the gazebo.
